

Jungle Bill

Yello

The moon is a drop in a black hole
The sun is a hell of a light
But nobody's blue is brighter
Than the blue in my baby tonight

A man is a snake in the autumn
Maybe dew is making him wretch
Oh man was it dark in the jungle
His heart is an empty fetch

A man is a duck in the jungle
Who's lost in the big bamboo
Snake jumps out of the fire
And it's cryin' for baby-do

The moon is a drop in a black hole
The sun was a hell of a light
Oh man, I'm gonna have my ice cold
Baby-do is out of sight

I'm in danger in your jungle
I'm a stranger, Land of Mambo
'Cause what you do must be voodoo
I'm in danger, oh, baby-do

A man is a cock in the jungle
He's lost in the big bam boom
The snake jumps out of the fire
And it's cryin' for baby-do

The moon is a drop in a black hole
The sun was a hell of a light
A man who might have my ice cold
Baby-do is shakin' its might

I'm in danger in your jungle
I'm a stranger, Land of Mambo
'Cause what you do must be voodoo
I'm in danger, oh baby-do
