

Pan Blue

Yello

I know I never knew till now what love and life were all about
I never could at any time forget the day that you were mine
Another day, another night, I'm lost again, blue morning light
I never could at any time forget the day that you were mine

I want the ocean
I want emotion
I want your eyes, and oh your lullabys

He's out there
He's out there
Feel good
Feel good
Feel good

I want the ocean
I want emotion
I want your eyes, and oh your lullabys
I want the ocean
I want the ocean
