Wake up Come live a brand new day Don't concentrate on this Just try to be happy In this world we're living Lay your weary head to rest Don't worry Cuz everything will be okay in the end Now you've really pissed me off You're fucking with my mind I'm wondering what it's like If it's worth my time Wondering what I've done To deserve to what you've done Tell me this time Hello Tell me how have you been All this time away Wow We've been sitting here On our stage with nothing left to do Except to play Except to play Lay your weary head to rest Don't worry Cuz everything will be okay in the end Wondering why (Wondering why)

Wondering why (Wondering why) Wondering why (Wondering why) Wondering
