

Radio Song Girl

Yellowcard

Building trust on pulling teeth again guess she knew that good guys never win something's broke in me, I hate this fucking feeling I can't stand to lose this

Thought I'd never fall thought this boy could take them all I was wrong, so wrong
now I'm guess I'm too far out of her world
radio song girl
she'll never stumble into my world
radio song girl
it's your world, you're cruel Waltzing downward, tripping on your words trying to tell her that she's won the rest of you gone down, in defeat take this fucking feeling

I can't stand to lose this

thought this boy could take them all
I was wrong, so wrong
now I'm guess I'm too far out of her world
radio song girl
