[A) Children Of Light]

Distant as the distant thunder Where equal rights for (will) rent assunder Equal rights for equal people (this) disregard for love's equality

Bringing back the signs to no-man's land Where diamonds and gold in hand Will barter as the homeless burn Someday will it be our turn?

Why this consciousness this desire To expand the flame of revolution With a (the) gothic hand in (of) fire persecution Blood-letting and (in) spinning pain?

Why this hungry media delivering Questions answers blessed forgivers (plus forgive us) Millions of racial inequalities We all are one All are sacred

Be the birth of a nation Stop this aggravation So uninspired And (to) question man's inhumanity And lack of love for his cosmic god

Children of light don't be afraid Children of light haven't you heard Gone are the days in black and white Children of light don't be afraid

Distant as the distant thunder Where equal rights for (will) rent assunder Equal rights for equal people (this) disregard for love's equality

Bringing back the signs to no-man's land Where diamonds and gold in hand Will barter as the homeless burn Someday will it be our turn?

Someday will it be our turn? Someday will it be our turn?
