In the dark while the obvious isn't clear Can't believe just what can interfere

Remember what has been achieved Keep tryin' it's the hour of need

What's the cost?
Can the end justify the means?
There's a need so many mouths to feed

Remember what has been achieved Keep tryin' it's the hour of need Still hoping we can succeed In this hour of need

Words unwritten
Mistrust suspicion
Stuck in this wilderness

For everyone water to drink Either we sink or swim
