

Nine Voices

Yes

On a beach, North Africa
Nine tribesmen stand alone
Waiting for a distant call
Waiting for the world to answer

Thru' the night of a thousand stars
Encircled by the light
They began to sing a new song
Of forces that surround us

When the sun came up they sang
As the perfect calendar says
Each had the power of people
Speaking new languages

They gave forgiveness meaning
New ways of letting go
Each child is born for greatness
With forces that surround them
