Walls

Yes

Don't you know it's my way out
To be on my own
When I feel like crying out
I do it best alone

Can you give me love and
Protection to shield my heart
All the fear I feel from doubt
Is tearing me apart

I wanna love, I wanna give
I want to find another way to live
Another shout, another cry
And the walls come tumbling down

Don't you know there's no way out
Your pain's your own
And the more we scream and shout
The more we feel alone

I can feel my anger rising
Am I to blame?
And I'm not gonna keep it inside me
Do you feel the same?

I wanna love, I wanna give
I want to find another way to live
Another shout, another cry
And the walls come tumbling down

And I'm calling you
