

Déjà Vu

Yngwie Malmsteen

I always knew, somewhere in time We'd meet again, we'd cross that line
Don't need to question, no reason why The answer lies before your eyes
Do you know who I am
Do you understand
Déjà vu, dreams come true
I see my soul inside of you Déjà vu, so many lies familiar spirits behind your eyes we cross between world through windows of light with open arms we hold back the night the crystal of power we hold in our hands we go on forever and love is the plan
Do you know who I am
Do you understand
Déjà vu, dreams come true
I see my soul inside of you
Déjà vu, so many lies
familiar spirits behind your eye
