Voodoo

Yngwie Malmsteen

The moon is bright in the voodoo night Dead eyes are burning with fire There's no more light in the voodoo night What's wrong and what's right, Let's end this fight

Something has started to grow Something that died long ago You know too much and you touch Forbidden knowledge

Voodoo

Tryin' to hide in the voodoo night Your cup of poison it feels so right The moon is bright in the voodoo night Dead eyes are burning with fire

Something has started to grow Something that died long ago You knew too much and you touch Forbidden knowledge
