Seems like falling down
Or away lost at sea
Or the one that's left behind
Or the wake of you and me

Maybe I know that
Maybe it's better
But I can't forget the time

I know where I am

Every day every night

Like the one who knows too much

Trusts the same old thing

Maybe I know that
Maybe it's better
But I can't forget the time

Realizing nothing I remember when

Maybe I know that
Maybe it's better
But I can't forget the time

Maybe I know that
Maybe it's better
Maybe it's nothing
But I can't forget the time
