

Don't Say a Word (Hot Chicken #2)

Yo La Tengo

Don't say a word
I am only sleeping
I haven't the nerve to tell you any more

You won't lie
If I go now
And the world won't know what trouble I'm in

Drift on, baby, leave
And I won't run from you
I will never look back at shadows
When it makes me come running
I'd never go talk to strangers anyway
