

Double Dare

Yo La Tengo

I, I should know
You shouldn't have to tell me Sometimes it's the way we feel or the way we feel we feel-pretty bad

In a double dare
He's got wandering eyes
And I see 'em look at you looking straight at you-but I know where they are

I'll walk you home
You take as long as it takes The sun in the morning sky, in the morning sky we'll know where we are We'll know where we are
