

Drug Test

Yo La Tengo

You may have left your mistake with breakfast
Watching the sun go down
I've been lying awake till dawn now
I'm not ready to face that
I'm not ready to face that thing today

I wish I was high
Brighter than nothing
Smarter than nobody
I've wasted away

I think of the things that matter
And I think of the things that don't Whatever it is no matter
I hate feeling the way I feel
I hate feeling the way I feel today

I wish I was high
Brighter than nothing
Smarter than nobody
I've wasted away

I see myself with headphones on I'm listening to Wake of the Flood (2x)
now I'm high

I wish I was high
Brighter than nothing
Smarter than nobody
I've wasted away
I wish I was high
Brighter than nothing
Smarter than nobody
I've wasted away
