

We All Are Dancing

Yoav

My head is a convenient store
For the dreams and all the sweet things I adore
But once I'm in
So hard to find
My way back out again

My body shaking to the chord
When I feel I can't take in anymore
I close my eyes
I hear I say
We all are dancing anyway

We all are dancing anyway
We all are dancing anyway

My heart is a bursting mushroom ball
That burning everything
We'll come undone
And that's the way
When she's finds me everything will be okay

We all are dancing anyway
We all are dancing anyway
We all are dancing...

I'm starting to believe
I'm starting to remember
Starting to remember
Starting to remember
Starting to remember

Surrender!

We all are dancing anyway
We all are dancing anyway
I might as well be
I might as well set our selves free

We all are dancing anyway
I might as well be
We all are dancing anyway
We all are dancing...
