

Alone

Yodelice

Landing in California
LA and hope is in the air
And I know you walked away

Feeling the lights have been high lightnin' the last page of my life
And I know you walked away

The more I look around
The more you're not beside me now
Making me a lonesome clown
The more I look into the crowd
The more I feel alone, alone, alone
Alone

A smile, a hand that I meet
Kindness and hospitality
But I know you walked away

Baby, baby, baby you're so sweet that I could weep
Though I know you walked away

The more I look around
The more you're not beside me now
Making me the lonesome clown
The more I look into the crowd
The more I feel alone, alone, alone
Alone
