

Thank you for pretending that
You can see me in the dark
As if I was making sense
And what I meant is what you really heard

'Cause baby baby baby
I'll be what I wanna be
Crazy as it may be
I'll die when I wanna

Lies set me free
Lies keep me from my fear
Lies believe in me
Lies heavenly shelter

Thank you for pretending that
I don't cry and I don't care
That my heart is made of clay
And I will keep sailling away

'Cause baby baby baby
I'll be what I wanna be
Crazy as it may be
I'll die when I wanna

Lies set me free
Lies keep me from my fear
Lies believe in me
Lies heavenly shelter

Thank you for pretending that

I got some skin around my bones
Thank you for pretending that
I'll never ever ever let you go

Lies set me free
Lies keep me from my fear
Lies believe in me
Lies heavenly shelter
