

Insanity

Yodelice

Bring me back my castle in the sand
When the stars were my only land
The sun had my respect
The sea had my love

One more for the road
Two for the sake of it
Three is a wasted crowd
I'll drink to being in the fool

Four you and me
Five am I still alive
Six o'clock time to weep
I'll drink to being in the creep

Bring me back my angels in the dark
Singing to the pounding of my heart
The sky had my respect
The sea had my love

One more for the road
Two for the sake of it
Three is a wasted crowd

I'll drink to being in the fool

Four you and me
Five am I still alive
Six o'clock time to weep
I'll drink to insanity
