Picture Perfect

Break the mold to Feed the lone and hungry souls See them chirping Silence is the truth, behold

Brush away, picture perfect, picture vain Just might be an empty shell, wash the pain

We watch the pain

Where's the world for Those who love and those who pray ? See them trying Hell is just one smile away

We watch the pain We watch the pain We watch the pain
