

Let the Rain Fall Down

YOHIO

I saw a place inside my dreams it\'s calling out for me \"Let\'s leave this world behind until it\'s over\"

So let go of all your fears
It seems far but we\'re so near
So hold on to me my dear
\'cause to me it\'s all so clear
Take my hand and we\'ll be there
Let\'s run away from here
Far from all the sorrow
I\'ll be here to walk beside you

Let the rain fall down
to wash away your pain
so the sun can shine again
With a single smile
you light the stars above
Can you see them glow all for us?

So many times I\'ve lost my way and finally I feel that I am brave enough to listen to my heart

So let go of all your fears
It seems far but we\'re so near
So hold on to me my dear
\'cause to me it\'s all so clear
Take my hand and we\'ll be there
Let\'s run away from here
Far from all the sorrow
I\'ll be here to walk beside you

Let the rain fall down
to wash away your pain
With a single smile
Can you see them glow all for us?

Let the rain fall down
to wash away your pain
With a single smile
Can you see them glow all for us?

Can you see them glow?
