

You're The One

YOHIO

Waking up at 6 a.m. now it's time again
I don't wanna go leave you alone in my bed
But I know when I get home you'll still be there
I just can't believe that it's you and me finally (you and me finally)

Cause when all our days have passed
She would be my first and last
Even though, she is real she's my dream

Miracles are hard to understand
When I see you smile and take my hand
You're the one (oh)
You're the one (oh)
Every time I see you smile at me
Every time you kiss me I can't breath
You're the one (oh)
You're the one (oh)
Oh ooh...

All this years have gone so fast, now you're mine at last
I won't let you go baby you're my heart and my soul
I know we started out as friends now we just can't pretend
I just can't believe that even though I'm blind I could see

And even if we're far apart I still feel you in my heart
Like the sun like the stars we will shine

Miracles are hard to understand
When I see you smile and take my hand
You're the one (oh)
You're the one (oh)
Every time I see you smile at me
Every time you kiss me I can't breath
You're the one (oh)
You're the one (oh)
Oh oh..

And even if we're far apart, I still feel you in my heart

Miracles are had to understand
When I see you smile and take my hand
You're the one
Every time I see you smile at me
Every time you kiss me I can't breath
You're the one
You're the one

Every time I see your smile
You're the one
You're the one
Every time I look at you
You're the one
You're the one..
