

Loneliness

Yoko Ono

There're many things in life I can endure
One such thing is poverty
But loneliness, loneliness
Is one thing I can't endure

There're many things in the world I can endure
One such thing is humility
But loneliness, loneliness
(Loneliness, loneliness)
Is something I can't endure

How could I stand loneliness, loneliness?
How are you suppose to cope with loneliness, loneliness?
How would one live with loneliness, loneliness, lo, oh, loneliness?
(Oh, loneliness)

There are many things in time and space I can endure
In fact, I can endure most anything
But loneliness, loneliness
(Loneliness, loneliness)
Is something I can't endure

How could I stand loneliness, loneliness?
How are you suppose to cope with loneliness, loneliness?
How would one live with loneliness, loneliness, lo, oh, loneliness?
Lo, oh, loneliness

Loneliness, so lonely, loneliness, so lonely
Loneliness, so lonely, loneliness, so lonely
Loneliness, so lonely, loneliness, so lonely
Loneliness, so lonely, loneliness, so lonely
Loneliness, so lonely
