

Nobody Sees Me Like You Do

Yoko Ono

I see your face looking into the space,
All tired and worried.
Why does it have to be like this, you and I,
I wanted us to be happy.

No one can see me like you do.
No one can see you like I do.

I see your face with a trace of life,
Being a wife and a woman.
If I ever hurt you, please, remember,
I wanted you to be happy.

Is there anything I want more,
More than your trust and understanding?

No one can see me like you do.
No one can see you like I do.

I wanna quit moving,
I wanna quit running,
I wanna relax and be tender.
I wanna see us together again,
Rocking away in our walnut chairs.

Even with your warmth and closeness,
The feeling of loneliness hangs over like a curse.

No one can see me like you do.
No one can see you like I do.

Even with our dreams and yearnings,
The feeling of loneliness hangs over like a thirst.

No one can see me like you do.
No one can see you like I do.

No one can see me like you do.
No one can see you like I do.
