

She Hits Back

Yoko Ono

Doo, ooh, doo, ooh, doo, ooh, doo, ooh
Doo, ooh, doo, ooh, doo, ooh, doo, ooh

My ears getting tired of listening all the time
They've been talking lots of garbage all their lives
And suddenly they decided to ring one back
Ring-ring, ring-ring, my ears are ringing like a warning

My eyes getting tired of looking all the time
They've been talking a lot of winking all their lives
And finally they decided to flash one back
Flash-flash, flash-flash, my eyes are flashing like a warning

My nose is getting tired of sniffing all the time
She's been taking Memphis blues all her life
And surely she decided to sneeze one back
Sneeze-sneeze, sneeze-
sneeze, my nose is sneezing like a warning

My body's getting tired of taking all the time
She's been taking lot of cornballs all her life
Suddenly she decided to hit one back
Bang-bang, bang-bang, she hits back like a warning

She hits back like a warning
Ring-ring, flash-flash
Sneeze-sneeze, bang-bang
She hits back like a warning

She's gonna hit back
(Yeah)
She's gonna kick back
(Yeah)
You won't know what hit you
Till you see her flashing
(Yeah)

She's gonna hit back
(Yeah)
She's gonna kick back
(Yeah)
You won't know what hit you
Till you see her head flashing
(Yeah, yeah)
