

I'm Free

Yolanda Adams

I remember when, my life was torn apart, things i would do to be happy, would always break my heart, but then one day I decided to give all my troubles to the lord, he loosed the shackles that were holding me, and Satan had to f lee and now

I am free, no more chains are binding me,
I am free,
I got a new way of living, no time for slipping,

Now that I can see above water,
I only have heaven in my view, Lord I wanna thank you for the love you gave, cause it was your love that brought me through,
oh no, no, no i can turn around and i wont look back, for Lord you've set my spirit free and now I am happy

I am free, no more chains are binding me,
I am free, I gotta brand new walk and a brand new talk,
I am free, no more chains are binding me, oh,
I'm free, gotta new way of living, no time for slipping...

I am free, I'm free, things I used to do I don't want to do no more, because I'm free, places I used to go,
I don't want to go no more because I'm free, Satan no longer has authority over me, because He set me free, Jesus set me free,
I love to call the name of Jesus because he set my soul free

I wanna walk in newness of life,
I wanna walk upright because I'm free...
