

Know Him

Yolanda Adams

know Him
I want to know Him
know Him
more than the feelings I feel more than the passing shall [?] more than the things people may say more than the trials I face everyday

I want to know Him
and the power of His resurrection
I want to know Him
and the fellowship of His suffering
I want to see through His eyes
I want to know what's in the Lord's heart no matter how long it takes
I want to know Him

more than the things I can touch oh Lord so much more more than the things my mind can ever dream of oh more than a dance or a song so much more more than clever clichés
I use when things go wrong

I want to know Him
and the power of His resurrection
I want to know Him
and the fellowship of His suffering
I want to see through His eyes
I want to know what's in the Lord's heart
no matter how long it takes
I want i wanna know Him

I want to know Him
and the power of His resurrection
I want to know Him
and the fellowship and the fellowship of His suffering
I want to see through His eyes
I want to I want to know what's in the Lord's heart no matter how long it takes
I want to know Him

No matter no matter no matter what i want to know him
