

Rejoice

Yolanda Adams

I came today with a song of hope Encouraging you to devote
Your life to something more cause there is so much more
So throw all of your doubts and fears away
Should have done it by now anyway
Can't do nothing bout yesterday
So just dance and rejoice

I want you to lift your hand move your feet and start to dance
Happiness is not by chance it's your choice
There is no wrong way to be you
Move your feet and do this too
Don't resist the joy lets rejoice
Special
Oh oh oh oh lets rejoice

Think about all you've overcome
All the battles and all the victories won
Why not stop and have some fun just dance and rejoice

I want you to lift your hand now move your feet and start to dance
Happiness is not by chance its your choice
There is no wrong way to be you
Now Move your feet and do this too
Don't resist the joy lets rejoice

Special oh oh oh
