

After this is over gonna sake your claim Make noise to rest and cannon nice your name you can shave on me a thousand ways to realise you wake with the same face Give me just five minutes I can prove I can reinvent the wheel
Cut a finger from my hand I can prove to you I can steal
Still breathe before you fall
Like you've never tasted air before
How long before you fall?
After this I'm gonna need to think Do I need you more than my next drink After this I'm gonna need to pay for all the gods and assholes that I meet today And which path did the senate only live for 45 minutes a day?
Would you laugh if you started to live only 45 minutes a
day?
Still breathe before you fall
Like you've never tasted air before
How long until you fall?
Still breathe before you fall
Like you've never tasted air before
How long before you fall?
