

Spit

You Am I

I'm feeling crazy or I'm half insane.
When I hear the click go off inside my brain
I spit.
I don't care who I hit.
But I aint too good at aim so you'd better stay outside my brain.
I don't swear or hit anyone I hate
I just keep it all inside 'till the state
I spit
I don't care who I hit
But I ain't too good at aim so you better stay outside my brain
I spit
I don't care who I hit
But I ain't too good at aim so you better stay outside my brain
