

Lived a Lie

You Me at Six

Well somebody told me
That I would be a dreamer for life
Somebody told me I would never reach the other side
Well you say I'm old news, but cross your fingers
I'm yours to lose.
What if I told you, that things will never improve

And if I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I can burn up bright,
(so I can burn, so I can burn)

The grass is always greener,
Someone else's past is always cleaner,
But I'm a believer, that there's a fool in all of us

And if I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I can burn up bright

Oh, I don't really know where our ghosts go
No, I don't really know where Our ghosts go
So live a lie just tonight, tonight

We are believers, We are believers
We are believers, We are believers
We are believers, We are believers
We are believers, We are believers
We are believers, We are believers
We are believers, We are believers
We are believers, We are believers

We are, we are

If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I can burn up bright

And if I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I can burn up bright

Oh, I don't really know where our ghosts go
No, I don't really know where our ghosts go,
So live a lie just tonight, tonight
And burn up bright.
