

Sweet Feet

You Me at Six

Save your breath
And I'll talk instead
And you'll just drop dead
And stay away from me

You've got me wrapped around your fingers
But I've got you figured out
And I'm down
But not out

She said love is, love is for the blind
And you gave yours without your eyes
So why be smart shy?

I hate to say I told you so
Yours never gonna let this go
With every little look you gave
And every move you made
She had you on the tip of your toes

Catch your breath
I know you're upset
But I am resilient to it
This test
I've got you down to a science
And I've got evidence
You're down and you're out

She said love is, love is for the blind
And you gave yours without your eyes
Oh why be smart shy?

I hate to say I told you so
You're never gonna let this go
With every little look she gave
And every move she made
She had you on the tip of your toes

You know
This is how it goes
Nothing lasts forever
That you should know
How it shows
You were on the ropes
You will feel so low
Just know that I am with you all

I hate to say I told you so
You're never gonna let this go
With every little look I'll give
And every move I'll make

I hate to say I told you so
You're never gonna let this go
She had you on the tip of your toes

On the tip of your toes
(oh oh oh oh oh woah oh)
(oh oh oh oh oh woah oh)
