When it come to girls I don't have a favorite flavor,
Chocolate Caramel Vanilla I like all flavors

Another day another dollar I got another flavor
Fruity Blue and Yellow diamonds look like life savers

What it is, what it do, verse 2,
They say I'm cheating with the girls because my diamonds flirt too
I walk up in the spot my ears speak to the haters,
Blue and yellow wrist the same color as the Pacers
Just got a fruity... the same color as the Lakers
Money going back and forth I call that ping pong

Independent by Webbie she say that's her theme song
No panties by Young Dolph she say that her ringtone
Three different flavors, and a calculator
Three in the morning Dolph still counting paper

Gucci Loafers, Gucci Bag filled with light green paper,
They say I got my Caramel and Chocolate then snickers
