

Can You Hear Me

Young Love

I'm living a timeless melody.
I'm not asleep but I must be dreaming.
Feels so, good.
Feels so...
Feel the rapture but I haven't started yet.
Say it hurts but you're not sick of it.

You cry out loud.
I can hear you.

If I'm blind do I have to feel my way.
If I got no words but so much to say.
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?

You know it's crazy but you still say it.
That I'm the only one that keeps you breathing.
Feels so, good.
Feels so good.

You cry out loud.
And sing over me.

If I'm blind do I have to feel my way.
If I got no words but so much to say.
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?

Will you live on a life comin' to mine?
In the darkness voices speak their mind.

If I'm blind do I have to feel my way.
If I got no words but so much to say.
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?
If I'm blind do I have to feel my way.
If I got no words but so much to say.
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?
Can you hear me?
Will you understand?
Can you hear me?
