

Evil & Harm

Younger Brother

I assure you, that with the help of God, I will let war on you in every place and in every way that I can. And I will subject you to the yoke and obedience of the church. And I will take you peasants and women and your children and I will make them slaves. And I will make them slaves. And I will do you all the evils and harms which I can.

They've taken so much. They've taken the guardians of the sun and the stars, the world will go black.
