

Through Your Eyes

Youngstown

I know a place where we can run away and be free just the two of us together holding hands whenever we please

Never thought that love could be so kind until you came along a nd changed my mind

If words alone could explain the way I feel for you
Then I would write a song, tell the world how much I do Those time you held me close and made me realize that I'm living my life through your eyes

They day that we could be lovers if we fail when do the stories stop and the privacy begins

Never thought that love could be so kind until you came along and changed my mind

If words alone could explain the way I feel for you
then I would write a song, tell the world how much I do
