

My Path Is Set

Your Memorial

My path is set with a hand to hold
I'm ready to live again
I'm ready to live again
Like a child running to open arms
I'm singing to you
I will scream your name again
I'm taking my steps
With a light to guide my way
I'm ready to live again
I'm ready to live again
Like a child running to open arms
I'm singing to you
I'm screaming your name again
