

For so long I've lived my life as if it were my own Rarely did I ever think of you or that you could ever change me My eyes were too blind to see

Your thoughts are not like mine
Your ways extend outside the lines of space and time redirect my steps towards your light

Eyes open (3x)

Now I'm beginning to see this narrow path you have laid out before me I know many are called but few will answer
Thank You, Oh Lord! for reaching down to me

Your thoughts are not like mine
Your ways extend
outside the lines of space and time
redirect my steps towards your light

SHINE THROUGH ME (3x)

That moment when you stepped in The encounter the day
I turned and ran to you

Your thoughts are not like mine
Your ways extend
redirect my steps towards your light

I will give thanks through my walk and through my faith
My life is Yours, you set the pace
You are worthy of all my praise
