

Empty Feat

YOURCODENAMEIS:MILO

Gravity pulls me down,
But I wish it was the only thing.
It was never meant to be this way.
I'm sure you don't forget a thing.
And I almost, I almost, I almost stood out,
Just a face in the crowd.
Can I pretend that I was on the run and everyone was
everywhere fall down,
But I can't feel the earth.
I'm standing still.
Start all over.
Start all over.

Start all over.
Can I pretend that I was on the run and everyone was
everywhere fall down,
But I can't feel the earth.
I'm standing still.
Yet empty feat were all that came.
Yet empty feat were all that came.
Weren't the shadows thin the last time,
I could fall illuminate.
Mine is the light,
Walk in the opening act fails.
Can I pretend that I was on the run and everyone was everywhere.
Fall down,
But I pretend that I was on the run and everyone was everywhere.
