

I'm Impressed

YOURCODENAMEIS:MILO

Congratulations, you're on time
Congratulations, you're on time
Tonight's your night but it will pass
You never thought that this could last
(ah did you)
Congratulations, I'm impressed
All you had to do was beat the best
There is a party in your hands
This place and venue in demand
Looks as though I've taken the wrong turn
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
Out of here
So when everything goes wrong
Don't expect to hear a song about it
About it
Changing your point of view again

Will create strain until the end
'Til the end
Looks as though I've taken the wrong turn
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
Out of here
And I'll take the back foot now
'Cos there's something missing
'Cos there's something missing
And I'll take the back foot now
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
So here we are now
And I'll take the easy road out of here
Out of here
I'm out of here
Out of here
I'm out of here
