I'm Impressed

YOURCODENAMEIS:MILO

Congratulations, you're on time Congratulations, you're on time Tonight's your night but it will pass You never thought that this could last (ah did you) Congratulations, I'm impressed All you had to do was beat the best There is a party in your hands This place and venue in demand Looks as though I've taken the wrong turn So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here Out of here So when everything goes wrong Don't expect to hear a song about it About it Changing your point of view again

Will create strain until the end 'Til the end Looks as though I've taken the wrong turn So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here Out of here And I'll take the back foot now 'Cos there's something missing 'Cos there's something missing And I'll take the back foot now So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here So here we are now And I'll take the easy road out of here Out of here I'm out of here Out of here I'm out of here
