

Screaming Ground

YOURCODENAMEIS:MILO

I resent
What's been said
Ideas under offer
Into red
I object
All the same
You and your stupid army
Are to blame
Reconstruct
Or disregard
I'd loved to pay attention
Through the shard
Evacuate
The lost plane
And take me to the waters

Of the sane/Seine
Now in turn
Walk away
Nullify, nullify
Time to run
Fade it slow
Your time is up, time is up
Even though
We passed the test
We'll make plans tomorrow
Maybe then we'll address
What is on our minds
Never know a struggle
Throwing March and April
To the ground
Screaming ground
It moves your every muscle
