Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
I'll watch it all unfold.
Make my presence diminish by the second,
Yours is the same story to tell, to tell,
Why didn't you mean it?
Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought for everytime,

They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought for everytime,
They will attack, they will attack.
Hold that thought now,
Or whatever made these actions,
Made these actions count.
Don't tell me how to live,
Don't tell me how I feel but please look after me.
But please look after me.
You bend and you're back breaks you,
Rise and your head aches,
When you scream when you fall down but it won't make a
sound.
You bend and you're back breaks you,
Rise and your head aches,
When you scream when you fall down but it won't make a
sound.
Hold yourself when they attack, and hold yourself and
don't look back.
Hold yourself when they attack, and hold yourself and
don't look back.
Hold yourself when they attack, and hold yourself and
don't look back.
Hold yourself when they attack, hold yourself and don't look back,
And start.
