

Titan Grip

YOURCODENAMEIS:MILO

Stare at a reflection,
Hold it - keep it safe and calm.
Just don't lose Titan Grip.
Mean what you asked me for.
There is one thing i can do,
Alter light and mirrors view,
Just don't lose Titan Grip.
Now halt with open arms,
And i'm waiting for you,
And it seems like something has gone astray,

Reflection is off the wall.
Take these weapons to the great battle of self, And still you seem to stare.
And repeat what you asked me for.
Memory of name,
This face escapes once again.
I can't take this.
Now halt with open arms,
And i'm waiting for you,
And it seems like something has gone astray,
Reflection is off the wall.
I see you and you are coming back.
I'll be waiting.
