Two Sides

Youth Group

I'm looking for oblivion. Become the place where the horizon ends.

I am just flesh Sublimated my brain Made a mistress of lust And a slave out of fame And I have learnt my lesson.

There's always 2 sides There's always 2 sides You can't serve 2 masters You can't take 2 sides

I've been studying two doors. One says constancy, the other just says more?.

Have you come here to dance? To die? To die? To die? To dance? To die? To die? To die? To dance? Or to die? To dance? Or to die?
