

No way

YUI

I am getting sick of this!
From just now, you have been building castles in the air
And you seem mindful about your mobile phone
Who are you mailing?
Raise your face

Your tea has turned cold
My feelings have been dampened too
There are times where I get carried away while waiting for replies too
But that is always..
Just for you.

We have finally met
I was so happy about it
Isn't it boring?

It is terrible
If it is like that Shall I shed crocodile tears?
I think I will just quit this Ah I am tired of this
I will turn sulky

I can't carry on like that
No way!
