White Keys

Some place to hide deep in my mind Some place to hide deep in my soul Any place we try any place we go We always try to hold Some place to hide deep in my mind Some place to hide deep in my soul Any place we try any place we go We always try to hold White keys or black keys It's not so funky We are restless just music junkies White keys or black keys It's not so funky We are restless just music junkies

This is not the song that we sing out now This is not the song that we sing out now This is not the song that we sing out now This is not the song that we sing out now
