

Right Again

Yuna

It takes two this time
To make this right
Should I start again
And end this fight
It's easy to pretend
That we're fine, but we're not okay
Have you given up this time
Or do you still wanna try

We should go to the Eiffel Tower
And see the stars at night
We can kick it in Amsterdam
Or go around a race track
We can re-write our history
On our gondola ride or we can fly away tonight
And make it right again

It takes two this time
To swim this tide
I never wanted to
Leave you behind
It's easy to let go
When you're tired of everything you know
Haven't given up this time
If you still wanna try

We should go to the Eiffel Tower
And see the stars at night
We can kick it in Amsterdam
Or go around a race track
We can re-write our history
On our gondola ride or we can fly away tonight
And make it right again

We can re-write our history

We should go to the Eiffel Tower
And see the stars at night
We can kick it in Amsterdam
Or go around a race track
We can re-write our history
On our gondola ride or we can fly away tonight
And make it right again
