

World O' Darkness

Yusuf Islam

In this world of darkness
evil rules by night
But somewhere in the shadows someone's seeking light.

No one knows his neighbour here nobody has the time
No one cares for anyone else in a world where the sun don't shine.

Shamsia, Shamsia.

Some sons dream of leaving while they're young at heart But few choose the path
towards the land beyond the dark
Who choose the path
towards the land beyond the dark ?
