

Superwoman

Yvonne Catterfeld

I ain't your superwoman
Hey, baby I gave you everything of me
But no, everything is not enough for you
I, try to explain but you don't seem to understand
That, I can not give you more than my two helping hands

I can't be your superwoman
Can't you see, it's killing me
No I can't be your superwoman
Find some one else who can be...

Hey, tell me just one good reason I should stay with you
Cause boy, I can not see that when your acting like you do
I'm fed up with this misery
I know I deserve more
Than being treated like your maid
Your making my heart sore

I can't be your superwoman
Can't you see, it's killing me
No I can't be your superwoman
Find some one else who can be

I ain't your superwoman
Why can't you see it's killing me
I ain't your superwoman
Why can't you see it's killing me

I can't be your superwoman
Can't you see, it's killing me
No I can't be your superwoman
Find some one else who can be

I ain't your superwoman
Why can't you see it's killing me
I ain't your superwoman
Why can't you see it's killing me

I can't be your superwoman
can't you see it's killing me
I can't be your superwoman
find someone who else can be
