

He's So Heavenly

Yvonne Přenosilová

Lips sweeter than wine
Ah, eyes that sparkle and shine
Oh, well, that's my baby
Right down to the tee

Here on Earth
But he's so heavenly
Yeah, here on Earth
But he's so heavenly

A smile that could
Make a coldest heart
A sweet, sweet talk
That could tear you all apart

Well now, that's my baby
Right down to the tee
Here on Earth
But he's so heavenly
Right here on Earth
But he's so heavenly

A way that could charm you so
You're looking at from
His head down to his toes

I said, now that's my baby
Right down to the tee
Here on Earth
But he's so heavenly
Hey now, right here on Earth
But he's so heavenly

Let me tell you 'bout my baby
He's so heavenly
I'm talking 'bout my baby
'Cause he's so heavenly
